Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State religious institutions that have proven down through the years to be exemplary components of local communities and neighborhoods through the excellence of their spiritual, philanthropic, and service endeavors; and

Whereas, Millersburg Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) located between Columbia and Fulton was incorporated and moved to its present-day location in downtown Millersburg in 1858 after having been founded in 1836; and

Whereas, current and former members of Millersburg Christian Church will observe the One Hundred Fiftieth Anniversary of their church through a series of celebrations that will take place from Friday, August 22, through Sunday, August 24, 2008; and

Whereas, the Sesquicentennial Anniversary will include Fellowship and Reminiscing; Raise the Roof gospel singing; Games for Children; Living History historical displays and speeches; an Old Time Dinner; Revival in Word, Song, and Spirit; Community Wide Celebration Worship; and a Group Photograph and Reception; and

Whereas, first led by Thomas J. Allen, Millersburg Christian Church is now guided by the Reverend Barbara Gulick as minister with a Board of Directors made up of six Elders and eighteen Deacons and with seven committees focused on Christian Education, Membership and Evangelism, Missions and Outreach, Property, Stewardship and Finance, Worship, and Pastoral Relations; and

Whereas, Millersburg Christian Church has a church roster made up of more than fifty persons who are committed to using twelve percent of their offerings for mission and outreach work and to taking additional collections for special causes and other mission projects; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse daily activities in order to acknowledge milestone events in the histories of such outstanding Missouri churches as Millersburg Christian Church:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the history, goals, and accomplishments associated with Millersburg Christian Church and to convey to all of those involved this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for a highly successful Sesquicentennial Anniversary celebration in August 2008; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Millersburg Christian Church (Disciples of Christ).
